Web Announcement 2609

Gender Restrictions Updated for Certain ICD-10 Diagnosis Codes and Procedure Code 58300

Gender restrictions have been added and removed from certain ICD-10 diagnosis codes and Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) code 58300 (Insertion of intrauterine device), which were denying in error for gender restriction error codes or should have denied for a gender restriction error code. Effective with the dates indicated below, when the impacted claims are processed, they will process per the updated gender restriction or bypass the gender restriction error codes.

- The gender restrictions have been bypassed for a group of ICD-10 codes when the CPT code is billed with modifier KX effective with dates of service on or after October 20, 2021.
- The gender restrictions have been removed from CPT code 58300 effective with dates of service on or after October 19, 2019.
- Gender restrictions have been added and removed for a group of ICD-10 codes to match Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) guidelines with dates of service on or after October 20, 2019, or the CMS effective date, whichever comes first.

Impacted claims with the criteria indicated below will be automatically reprocessed:

- Claims for ICD-10 diagnosis codes where the gender restrictions have been added or removed with dates of service on or after October 20, 2019, that processed on or before October 20, 2021, that denied in error.
- Claims for CPT code 58300 with dates of service on or after October 19, 2019, that processed on or before October 20, 2021, that denied in error.

Results of the reprocessed claims will appear on a future remittance advice. When claims are reprocessed, please be aware that all system and clinical claim editor edits are applicable. As a result, there may be no additional payment, and other claim denials may be received. Providers have the right to appeal denied claims, including those denied upon reprocessing. Please refer to Medicaid Services Manual Chapter 100 and the Billing Manual for information concerning the claim appeal process and time frames.
